

THE UNITED NATIONS

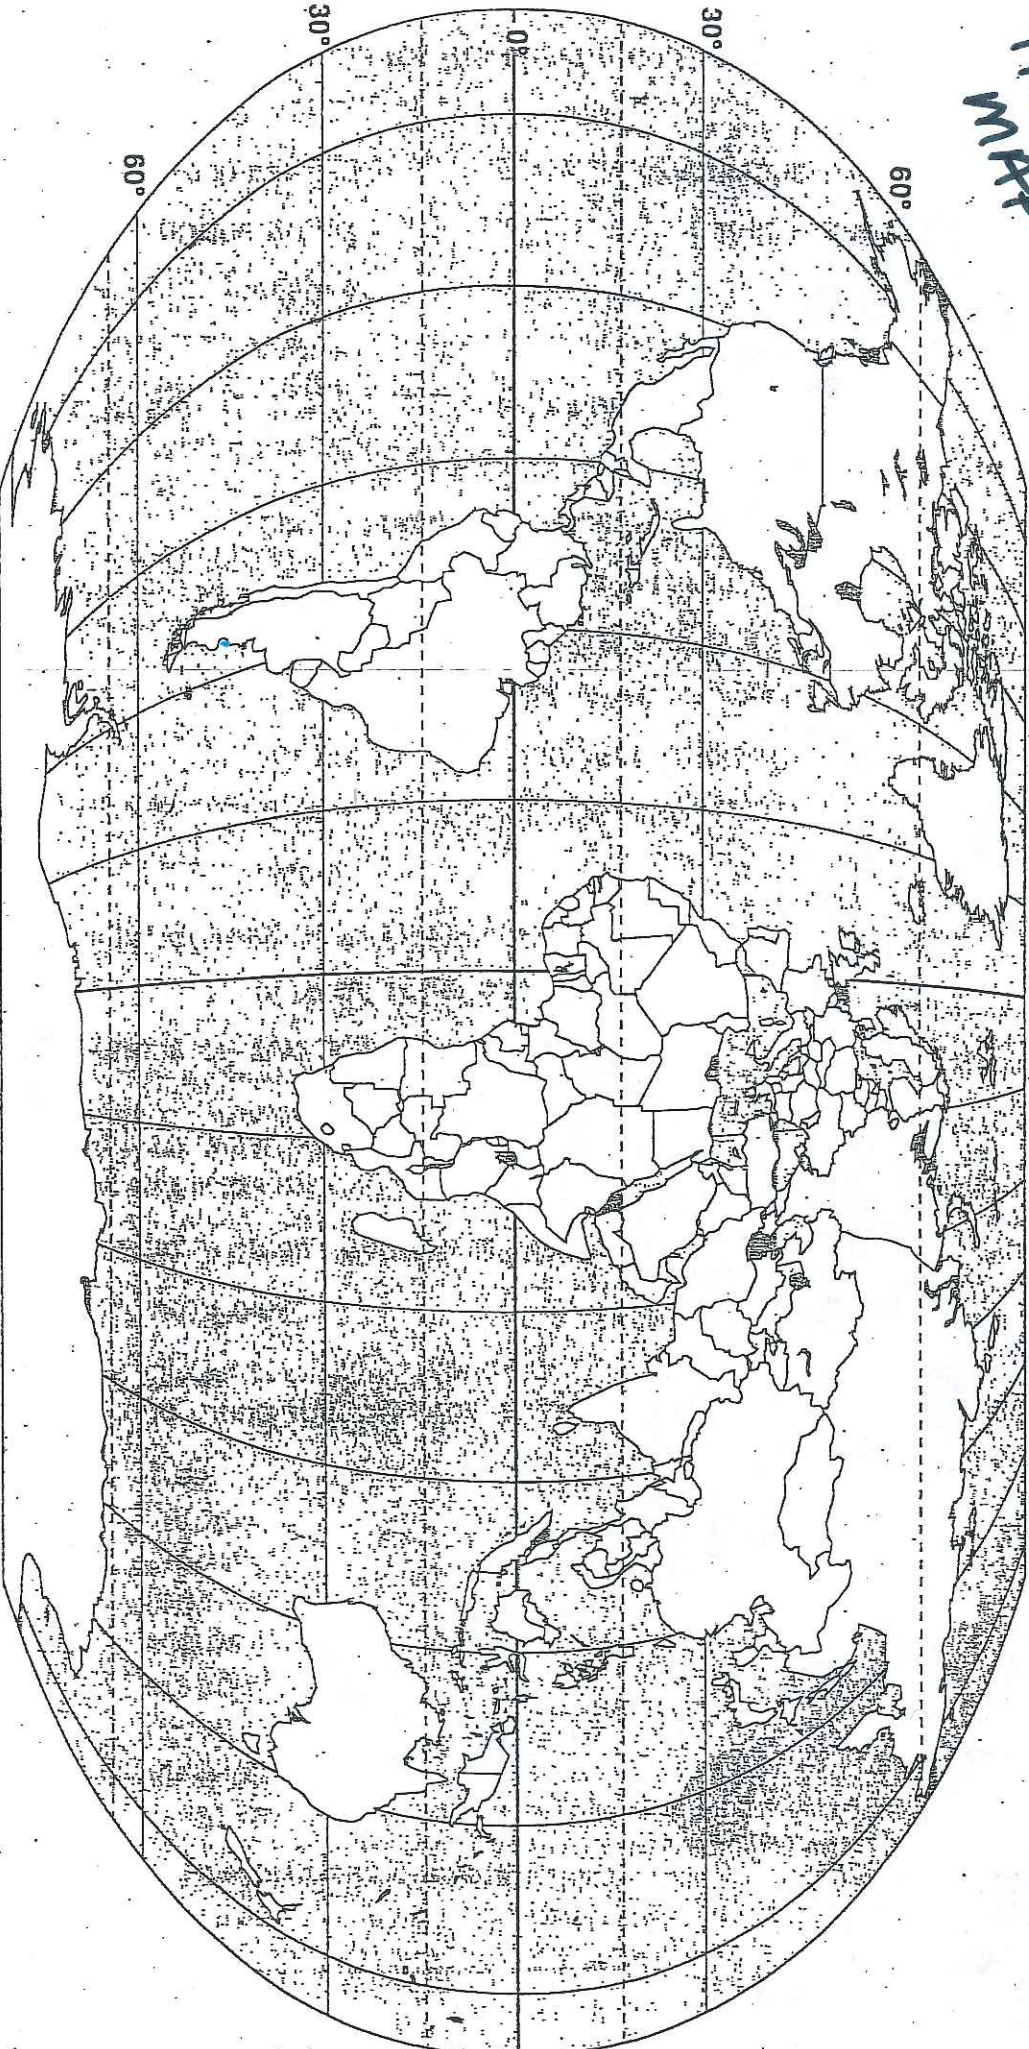

SITES OF SIGNIFICANCE

Standard #2...

Identify the following 'sites of significance' in the history of the United Nations: San Francisco, Washington D.C., Moscow, London, New York, the Netherlands, and Portugal. To do this, complete the color-coded key below, assigning each location listed a different color, and then, using the text atlas, (the 'RA' pages), accurately locate, by colored star, (for cities), and by colored dot, (for countries), each site of significance on the map.
